HISTORY OF CHRIST CHURCH, CHICAGO

Protestant Episcopal 1855-1874
Reformed Episcopal 1874-1920

The Memorial Windows and Plaques of Christ Church were placed in the Bishop Cheney Memorial Church, 7020 Yale Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

This copy of the History of Christ Church, Chicago is presented by the Genealogical Records Committee of the Cheyenne Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Miss Augusta Bevans has done the typing.

Permission to use the History was obtained from Dr. E. J. Sonne, Rector of Bishop Cheney Memorial Church, through the courtesy of Miss Marguerite Heinrichs. Her interest in the matter first brought it to my attention and it was through her efforts that our copy was proof-read. As far as is known this is the first time the record has been transmitted to any library.

For a number of years the Genealogical and Historical Records Committee of the Wyoming Chapters of D. A. R. and D. A. C. have exchanged their contributions. The National Libraries of both Societies have benefited because of this and duplication of work has been avoided.

Bishop Charles Edward Cheney was the second Chaplain General of the Sons of the American Revolution and served in that office from 1890 to 1898. In recognition of this service we are giving a copy of his History to the S. A. R. Library. In addition copies are being sent to the Newberry Library, the New England Genealogical and Historic Society, the Denver Library, the Institute of American Genealogy and to the Wyoming State Library.

Rebekah Oliver, Chairman

HISTORY OF CHRIST CHURCH (REF. EPIS.) CHICAGO

The history of this Parish necessarily divides itself into two well-defined and clearly distinguished portions. Practically, the original organization of Christ Church, Protestant Episcopal, and the present parish, are but differing phases of the same congregational life. For its career of Gospel freedom under the Reformed Episcopal Church, Christ Church was preparing through the thirteen years or more of its Protestant Episcopal life--even as God's people under the Mosaic dispensation were preparing for the light and freedom of the Gospel dispensation. Those who on the 18th day of February 1874 organized in due form the new parish of Christ Church were, without a solitary exception, up to that date members of the old parish in its relation to, and organic life in, the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Not one of the Vestrymen who had faithfully served the Prot. Episcopal Church in its Evangelical principles up to that day, who did not cordially and earnestly add the weight of his influence to the cause of reform. The minister who had so long preached from her pulpit the Gospel of the Low Church element in the Protestant Episcopal fold, was chosen unanimously to lead this exodus. In a word, to all intents and purposes, the two parishes were identical.

Hence of necessity it comes to pass that to begin a record of the History of Christ Church with its organization under the banner of the Ref. Epis. Church would be essentially defective and faulty.

The first part of this account will therefore contain a history of the old organization from its earliest formation—the second will take up the story at the separation of Bishop Cummins from the Protestant Episcopal Church—and the moulding into shape in December 1873 of the elements which constituted the germ of the Reformed Episcopal body.

Of course the greater part of the earlier section will be simply a transcript from the old Parish Register, with such additional facts as may have come to the writer's knowledge since he prepared that record.

Christ Church Chicago (Protestant Epis.)

During the summer of the year 1855, the Rev. Charles V. Kelly, then officiating in Chicago, finding a few zealous members of the Protestant Episcopal Church in that portion of the city then known as Carville, attempted to enlist their cooperation in the establishment and maintenance of the services of the Episcopal Church. The effort met with such cordial concurrence as to give immediate hope of ultimate success. A request, signed by thirty-six persons, residents of the neighborhood, was presented to the Bishop of the Diocese, asking his official consent to the organization of a new parish. As such, it is proper that it should be transferred entire to this brief history of the church.

To the Bishop of Illinois:

We, the undersigned, being desirous of having the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church—(some of us being members of said Church), request the organization of a parish at Carville in the Southern Division of the City of Chicago.

The following answer was returned:

To James A. Warner, A. S. Tucker, James Long and thirty-five others:

Gentlemen:

I have received by the hands of the Rev. C. V. Kelly your request for my official consent for the organization of a church in Carville in the Southern Division of the City of Chicago. I give this consent with great pleasure and thankfulness to God who has put it into your hearts to begin a good work which I trust He by His strength and blessing will finish to the end.

Respectfully Yr. Friend and Servant in Christ

Henry J. Whitehouse

Chicago, Nov. 1st, 1855

Certificate of Consent

I hereby give my official consent to the organization and formation of a Church in conformity to the Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and according to the constitution and canons of the same, and of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Illinois, to be located in Carville in the Southern portion of the City of Chicago, the same having been requested of me by a competent number of persons resident in that neighborhood.

Such was the initiatory movement toward the establishment of this most important parish.

Of the names attached to the above request, only six are those of persons now (i.e. August 25th, A.D. 1864) connected with the parish. They are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McRoy, Mrs. Clara C. Waite (then Miss Clara C. Long), Mrs. Louisa Kimball, and Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Green. But one or two of the remaining portion of those signing the request have ever been actual attendants of the services and the majority of the signers have long since moved from the city or from the vicinity of the Church.

From the date of the foregoing documents to October 6th, 1858, a period of three years, there is no record in possession of the parish which throws any light whatever on its history. Of the first election of Wardens and Vestrymen, or what persons constituted that body, there is no written evidence, nor is it now possible to arrive at any definite facts that would fill up or bridge over this gap in the record of events, except from the recollection of two or three individuals who are still of our number.

From such disjointed and fragmentary information as this source supplies, it appears that Dr. Kelly continued to hold services until sometime during the year 1856. The place of meeting was at first the Orphan Asylum; at a later period a small schoolhouse standing near the corner of Douglas Avenue and 24th (then Monterey) St. After the discontinuance of the effort on the part of Rev. Dr. Kelly, a call was extended to the Rev. F.B. Nash, which that gentleman accepted. The removal of some of those previously most active in the work so discouraged Mr. Nash and the remnant of the congregation, that after a few weeks he resigned the parish and relinquished the undertaking. Some time later, another clergyman, whose name I have been unable to learn, attempted to gather those who had been interested in the former enterprise, and to revive the once organized but now practically defunct parish. The effort was unsuccessful, and all further attempt to maintain the services of the Episcopal Church in the neighborhood was relinquished until the summer of 1858. During that year the Rev. Noah Hunt Schenck, Rector of Trinity Church, foreseeing that the rapid growth of South Chicago would render it soon a most promising field for Church enterprise, endeavored to rekindle the spark that seemed entirely extinct. After some consultation with one or two of those formerly interested in the movement, notice was given that Mr. Schenck would conduct the service of the Episcopal Church, and preach in the Congregational Church on the following Sunday afternoon. A respectable congregation assembled and the Episcopalians present having been invited to remain after service, it was arranged that Mr. Schenck should regularly officiate every Sunday afternoon. The precise date of this revival of services I have been unable to ascertain.

The place of worship occupied during the summer was a small frame building standing near the corner of Indiana Avenue and "Ringgold Place"—now 22nd St.—which was loaned for afternoon worship by the Methodist congregation at that time occupying it. The attendance on these services was every way encouraging and the interest which they enlisted was of a permanent character.

To the earnest and persevering efforts of Mr. Schenck the successful establishment of Christ Church is, under God, mainly due. The tone of his preaching as positively evangelical and anti-sacramentarian, the genuine Christian charityof his intercourse with other branches of the Protestant Church of Christ, gave an early bias to the doctrinal tendencies of the parish. ~~The~~ Its laborious Founder, for such Mr. Schenck may be justly called, baptized the undertaking in the spirit of prayer, and it has been carried on to this day as a parish which, loving the doctrines of the Thirty-nine Articles and majestic simplicity of the Liturgy, loves infinitely more the great fundamentals of the faith in which all who love the Lord Jesus are agreed.

The first Vestry meeting of which any record has been preserved was held on the 6th of October, 1858. The names which appear in the minutes are those of William B. Bass, Samuel McRoy and Asa Kimbal. At this meeting Rev. N. H. Schenck was formerly elected rector of Christ Church, and a Mr. Saunders appointed to fill a vacancy in the vestry. At a subsequent meeting held November 13th, 1858, Captain William R. Hoodless appears as a member of the Vestry, and Messrs. Allen C. Calkins and T. Whitcomb are added to the Vestry by election.

On the 27th of November, 1858, the Rev. Mr. Schenck's resignation was tendered and accepted, and the Rev. Henry Adams was called to the charge of the parish. On the 9th of December, 1858, the Vestry authorized their Building Committee to expend a sum not exceeding One Thousand Dollars in the erection of a Church. The lot, situated on Monterey (now Twenty-fourth) Street, was furnished free of ground rent for five years by Mr. T. Whitcomb. At the same meeting Mr. Thomas Crouch was elected a Vestryman. The building thus undertaken was completed and occupied the following spring. On Easter ~~Morning~~ Monday 1859, Thomas Crouch and A. C. Calkins were chosen as wardens, and William R. Woodless, Walter N. Woodruff, Jno. B. Parsons, John N. Staples, Edward F. Dyke, Royal A. B. Mills, and Samuel McRoy were made Vestrymen. This is the first record of the regular election of a vestry. The ministry of Rev. Mr. Adams in Christ Church was a brief one. At an advanced period of life, he had left the ministry of the Congregational Church for that of the Episcopal. Not perfectly familiar with the laws of our Church, or rather with the interpretation put upon them by some of our canonists, he was so unfortunate as to fall into technical and constructive violation of the law.

Visiting the scene of his former labors in the Lord, he was asked by his successor in the Presbyterian Church to assist him in the pulpit services. The result of his acceptance of this courtesy, was his stern arraignment before the Bishop of the Diocese and without the form of a trial, with hardly even the opportunity of defence, his license to preach was summarily revoked. Thus deprived of the right to preach the Gospel in the Church whose ministry he had made great sacrifices to enter, he was compelled to abandon the work on which he had but just taken the first step. In July 1859 he resigned the charge of the parish. His subsequent work in Ohio, in New England, and in Iowa, have proven how great a loss to the parish, in which his ministry as an Episcopal minister began, was caused by his arbitrary and unjust treatment at the hands of his first Bishop.

In August 1859, Rev. Chas. Edward Cheney was called to the charge of the Church, but declined the position on account of his being yet in Deacon's orders.

At a somewhat later period, Rev. Theodore N. Morrison was called to Christ Church but declined the position. In November 1859 the call to Mr. Cheney was renewed, the Church offering to wait till Mr. Cheney's ordination to the Priesthood should enable him to take full charge of the parish. This second call was accepted and the Rector elect entered on his duties the second Sunday in March 1860.

In the interval between Mr. Cheney's acceptance of the call and entering upon the work, the parish was greatly indebted to the Rev. Edmund B. Tuttle for active and faithful ministrations. On Easter Monday 1860 Messrs. Crouch and Calkins were elected wardens, and Jno. B. Parsons, Jno. N. Staples, T. Whitcomb, Samuel McRoy, George A. Sacket, Dodge W. Keith, Royal A. B. Mills and Walter N. Woodruff were elected Vestrymen.

During the year 1860 there was a gradual but steady improvement in attendance and interest in the services. In 1861 we find among the newly elected Vestry the names of Charles J. Kershaw, Otto Moor and Dr. H. N. Hurlburt. During this year the congregation so much increased that the enlargement of the Church edifice became necessary. Twenty-five feet was added to the length of the building, a tower erected, a small choir gallery built, and the Church was carpeted throughout and newly upholstered.

The expense of these improvements was about $1,500. The Church as enlarged was first occupied on Sunday, June 16th. In the Vestry chosen Easter Monday 1862, the names of H. Stanton Monroe, Charles Follansbe, Russell Benedict, and James G. Owen appear. The most important event in the temporal affairs of the Church during this year was the purchase for $3,600 of the lot on the South East corner of Michigan Avenue and twenty-fourth St., on the rear portion of which the old Church stood. The lot is one hundred feet front on the avenue and runs back along twenty-fourth street to the alley between Michigan and Indiana Avenues. Mr. T. Whitcomb, the owner of the property, although since 1860 a non-resident of the City, had not forgotten his attachment to this infant church, and had left directions with his agents to sell this lot to the parish at a lower rate than could have easily have been obtained from other purchasers. All honor to his generous thoughtfulness!

During the years 1860, 1861, 1862 there was a steady growth in the number of communicants although the confirmations were by no means as large as they could be desired. In the latest of the three years mentioned, the Lenten services developed considerable religious interest, though no marked awakening took place.

In the year 1863, nine persons were confirmed and fourteen were added to the communion by admission from other parishes. The pecuniary strength of the parish very greatly increased during this year, and the building was evidently becoming "too strait" for the number who desired to worship within its walls.

Early in 1864, a great calamity befell the parish, which, like most other troubles, proved a blessing in disguise. The 29th of February 1864 is a date long to be remembered by the members of Christ Church.

On that night, the Church in which we had so long worshiped was partially consumed by fire.

At the time of the occurrence the parish was on the eve of enlarging the old building the second time.

For something more than two months we were deprived of any place of worship of our own, but through the courtesy of Calvary (Presbyterian) Church, we were enabled to maintain our services and Sunday School. The old church was repaired so that on Sunday, May 8th it was occupied for worship. In the meantime steps had been taken and subscriptions obtained toward a new structure.

The first idea was to build a wooden church with brick or stone basement. This plan was however soon abandoned, and the erection of a stone Gothic Church was begun from plans by T. V. Wadskier, Architect.

On the 25th day of August 1864 the corner stone of the new edifice was laid by the Rt. Rev. Henry J. Whitehouse, Bishop of the Diocese of Illinois. A large congregation assembled in the old church, where severel clergymen took part in the preliminary services and the Bishop delivered an appropriate address. The Bishop, the clergy in their robes, and the congregation then proceeded to the Michigan Avenue front of the new church (the foundation of which was already laid) where the ceremony of laying the corner-stone was conducted by the Bishop.

In the cavity of the stone was deposited a list of the officers of the Church, as follows:

Rector	Chas. Edward Cheney
Wardens	Allen C. Calkins George A. Sacket
Vestrymen	Chas. Follansbe, Wm.H. Wood, John S. Wallace, Wm. C. D. G rannis, Edwd. C. Cleaver, Wm. D. Harris, Wm. H. Rice, Otto Moor.

Clerk of the Vestry	Eugene C. Long
Treasurer	Merrill C. Follansbe
Sexton	Isaac Parker

In addition to the list of foregoing officers of the Church, there were deposited in the box contained in the corner-stone a Bible and Book of Common Prayer, a History of the Parish, a copy of the Western Episcopalian, the Episcopal Recorder, the Parish Visitor, and the North Western Church. Also a copy of the sermon preached on the occasion of the Consecration of Trinity Church, Chicago, by the Rev. Noah Hunt Schenck, Rector of Emanuel Church, Baltimore, entitled "The Preaching of Jesus."

The year 1864 was begun with disaster. It closed amidst great gloom for the parish. The immense increase in the price of all building materials consequent upon the war made the cost of the new edifice more than double the amount prescribed by the original contract. The Vestry struggled manfully against terrible embarrassments and the work slowly progressed.

As if to compensate for temporal troubles and financial difficulties, the winter of 1864-65 was made by our Heavenly Father a season of peculiar spiritual blessing. Nearly thirty were confirmed--many of them heads of families and persons of mature age.

It was not till the close of the year 1865 that the new church was ready to be occupied.

On Sunday December 17th, the opening service was held, at which fifteen clergymen were present, the Right Rev. Henry W. Lee, D. D. of Iowa preaching a most faithful sermon.

It should be here stated that the work of carpeting and upholstering the church was carried through by the Ladies Society of the parish, an organization which was formed in 1860 and has always held a most prominent place among the good and benevolent agencies of this Church.

From the hour that we entered our new and beautiful Church, the parish began a new era of its history. Families who had been waiting for room to worship with us availed themselves of the opportunity, and before six months had elapsed the income of the parish had risen to $7,000.

The Sunday School, always a vigorous one, shared the growth of the Church, and soon reached the number of three hundred children.

Again the season of Lent brought a gracious rain on the Lord's inheritance. In the month of March 1866 Bishop Lee--acting for the Diocesan--confirmed a most interesting class of twenty-three, and in the month of July in the same year, he again confirmed seven.

At the time of this present writing, early in the year 1867, the parish appears to be in a state of great temporal and spiritual prosperity. And it is worthy of record, as indicating, it is hoped, the future stand which the parish will take in the great contest between Gospel truth and sacramentarian error, that on Wednesday evening, March 6th, 1867, the first prayer meeting in which laymen took the principal part was held in the Lecture room of the parish Church. May it be a new tie, additional to all before possessed, to bind the hearts of this people to those great truths which, stigmatized by some as "Low Church", are by us held to be the very marrow of the Gospel of the Lord Jezus.

In March 1867, Mr. George W. Thompson began the work of assisting the rector in the reading of the services on Sundays. His excellent voice and admirable elocution rendered him a most acceptable assistant, and through a period of seven years it was with him emphatically a labor of love, ending only with his sad and (humanly speaking) premature death in the autumn of 1874.

In the spring of 1867 nineteen persons were confirmed by Bishop Whitehouse.

During the same season, a work which had been begun by the Rector in a series of Tuesday evening "Cottage Lectures" held in a somewhat destitute neighborhood bordering upon Archer Road (afterward Archer Avenue), eventuated in an effort to build up in that vicinity a Mission Chapel. A room was procured for the purpose, and through the intervention of friends in Philadelphia, an assistant was secured in the person of the Rev. Charles E. Griffith, Deacon. Mr. Griffith's work as Assistant Minister was very brief and so far as observation could discover, ineffective. After three months stay, he went further westward—and in the Diocese of Kansas subsequently blossomed out of his Evangelical calyx into a full blown Sacramentarian.

During the year 1867, the Rev. Robt. J. Parvin and the Rev. Franklin S. Rising, respectively the Secretaries of the Evang. Education Society and the American Church Missionary Society , visited this parish and evoked great interest in the work which they represented. The fact is mentioned here because of the melancholy interest which attaches to their sad death. They were on their way via Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis, to this city for another visit in 1868 when by a collision on the Ohio River, both lost their lives.

After long and wearisome delays, the main lecture and Sunday School room of the church basement was completed in the autumn, and occupied for the first time at our Wednesday evening Lecture Dec. 18th, 1867.

In 1868 the course of the parish was unmarked except by a steady advance in material and spiritual prosperity. Every seat in the Church was filled and it soon became evident that our edifice—only two years old—was already too contracted. Thirty-four persons were confirmed on the Thursday before Easter. It is a singular fact that among the persons thus added to the membership of the Church was one who subsequently became the tool of the enemies of the parish as one of the plaintiffs in a tedious and unjustifiable law-suit against the Vestry and the Rector.

In the fall of 1868 the enlargement of the Church was begun. The entire chancel and east wall of the building were taken down, and thirty feet added to its length. It involved the disuse of the Church proper for eight weeks—the services being held meantime in the Lecture room. The first service in the enlarged Church was held on Sunday morning Dec. 13th, 1868. It was either in this year—or perhaps in the latter part of 1867, that mainly through the instrumentality of members of Christ Church, lots were purchased on the corner of Hanover and 28th Sts., and a small wooden building erected under the name of "St. George's Chapel". The name was given as one which had very pleasant associations with the mother country for the English people who largely composed the population in the vicinity.

Mr. John A. Smale, a young man formerly a member of the parish, but for two or three years engaged in teaching and Sunday School work in the State of Ohio, was engaged to act as Superintendent and Lay Preacher at St. George's. His work was greatly blessed and a large Sunday School was soon gathered. The congregation also steadily increased and though poor in pecuniary resources, was united and enthusiastic. The "Cottage Prayer Meetings" established by the people of St. George's Chapel have been a source of incalculable good. The work of Mr. Smale continued for about two years, during which he established on Archer Avenue near Twenty-first St. the "Tying Mission", and on Butterfield near 31st, another promising Mission School.

The history of Christ Church has hitherto been one of almost uninterrupted prosperity and steady growth. But with the spring of 1869 a new era begins. Henceforth, for a period of nearly five years, the parish and the Rector were to become the center of a great conflict and to experience the trials of ecclesiastical persecution.

On the 31st day of May 1869, Bishop Whitehouse visited the Rector, and charged him with a gross violation of the Canons of the Church and of his "ordination vows", in having made an omission from the Office for Infant Baptism of the portion directly and positively declaring that the child "is regenerate", In this interview, Bishop Whitehouse admitted that his information on the subject had not been derived from any member of Christ Church, but from the Rev. Mr. Goodspeed, the pastor of the Second Baptist Church, who had casually mentioned the fact in conversation. He demanded of Mr. Cheney that he should solemnly pledge his word never again to make such omission.

Such pledge, the Rector of the parish (while in view of any possible legal complications, he refused to admit the fact or deny it, that he had made the omissions charged) wholly declined to give. Whatever he had done he claimed to have been driven to do by a conscientious regard for truth. The Bishop then threatened him with an ecclesiastical trial and ultimate deposition—giving as a reason for so severe a result that no one of the Low Church ministers of the Diocese who had been closely associated with Dr. Cheney was eligible to be a trier in such a case. Still the Rector refused to make any promises. Within a few days the difficulty was bruited through the public press from one end of the land to the other. The Church and its pastor were made the subject of a most undesirable and painful notoriety. The Vestry met and adopted a preamble and resolutions which were sent to Bp. Whitehouse expressive of their unshaken confidence in their Rector and deprecating any ecclesiastical proceeding against him. It is needless here to dwell upon details. A most painful excitement agitated the Church and the whole community.

The Bishop hastened the preliminaries of trial, and appointed as presbyters to try the case five clergymen—every one of whom was a known and pronounced High Church man, The triers were Rev. Samuel Chase, D. D., Rev. John Benson, Rev. A. W. Snyder, Rev. H. N. Pierce, D. D., and Rev. T. N. Benedict.

The trial began on the 21st day of July 1869. Its first proceeding was of such a character as to create grave suspicion that the whole proceeding was a conspiracy to destroy a clergyman of an opposite party from the one in power. The triers positively refused to be questioned as to whether they had formed any prejudice or opinion in the case. The accused offered to bring the most positive testimony to the fact that one of the triers (Rev. A. W. Snyder) had expressed the opinion that the accused was guilty and should be deposed. This matter the court declined to look into. Grave objections to the presentment or indictment as well as to the whole formal method of proceedings were disposed of by this so called court with the same promptitude. On the second day of the trial the whole proceeding was stayed by a writ of injunction from the Superior Court of Chicago issued by Judge John A. Jameson. The result was unexpected and created profound excitement. Its effect was to stay all further ecclesiastical discipline for a period of a year and a half.

The eighteen months that followed the sudden interruption of Dr. Cheney's trial were the crucial test of the parish.

It was a period of education and consolidation. For the first time the people of the parish found themselves so brought face to face with the great questions which were at the bottom of the High and Low Church theologies. They had always been classed as Low Church, and so regarded themselves. Now they had to answer to themselves and to others—why they were so. The whole subject came under review. Men began to ask whether the Prayer Book and the Bible were in accord in reference to the subject of Regeneration, as well as other points. The parish was made a spectacle to angels and men. The Rector was deluged with letters, some kind, some abusive. The newspapers with their usual stupidity were full of blundering misconceptions of the whole difficulty.

Meantime the work of the Church went steadily on. A few individuals and one or two families left the Church. But the great bulk of the large congregation continued to uphold their Rector.

Bishop Whitehouse visited the Church in the morning of Sunday, March 27th, 1870, and confirmed forty-one persons. This was the last confirmation ever held in Christ Church by Bishop Whitehouse or by any other Bishop of the Prot. Epis. Church. As a Prot. Episcopal Church the parish was then rapidly hastening to the close of its history.

At Easter the usual services were held, and an offering of nearly $1800 testified to the vitality of the organization. The Mission work was going on as usual. Mr. Smale had resigned and his place was temporarily filled by a young man of great enthusiasm and zeal named Parker. The quiet which prevailed for eighteen months and which had served to give a breathing space to the parish was rudely broken up on the 24th of January, 1871. On that day the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois in session at Springfield reversed the decision of Judge Jameson and left Bishop Whitehouse free to press again the Ecclesiastical trial.

He soon re-assembled the court of triers. It met on the 1st day of February, and on its threshold found an obstacle. The Rev. H. N. Pierce, D. D., one of the original court, had been elected and consecrated a Bishop, and was then residing in Arkansas. This left but four, viz., Rev. Messrs. Benson, Benedict, Chase and Snyder. The defense claimed that a new court must be chosen. The prosecution held that the four were a valid court, and the four themselves naturally sided with the prosecution and decided themselves to be a valid court. The defense acted throughout the following proceedings on the theory that the whole proceedings were defective and radically worthless.

The trial lasted nearly four days. It resulted in a verdict of Guilty, and a recommendation that the sentence be suspension from the ministry until Dr. Cheney should make assurances "satisfactory to the Bishop, of contrition for the past, and conformity in the matter wherein he has offended for the future."

Of course such a sentence was equivalent to perpetual suspension.

Mr. Cheney had acted, according to his own statement, in omitting a part of the Baptismal Service, only as his conscience had compelled him to ~~do~~ act. For such conduct contrition was an impossibility. Equally impossible would it be to promise conformity in the future unless his conscientious scruples should be changed. The sentence therefore was one which positively required him either to be a hypocrite or disregard it altogether. He chose the latter course. The sentence was pronounced on the 18th day of February, Dr. Cheney rising and entering his solemn protest. In the afternoon of the same day the Vestry unanimously passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Rev. Chas. E. Cheney be requested to continue his services as Rector of Christ Church."

It may be well here to state that the Rev. John Cotton Smith, D. D., the Rector of the Church of the Ascension, New York City, telegraphed Dr. Cheney, "Disregard the sentence. Preach next Sunday."

This advice was too late to affect the case either way. The die was cast, and Mr. Cheney had decided on his course irrespective of others' opinions. He preached to an immense congregation on the following Sunday in Christ Church.

About this time a new step was taken which did much to prepare for subsequent reformation. A year had passed since an Episcopal visitation. The opinion had been freely expressed that the growth of the parish must certainly be stopped, and the Church dwindle away, because the regular mode of admission to an Episcopal Church was cut off in the refusal of the Bishop to confirm in a Church which was in a state of rebellion as he regarded it. A very simple and straightforward course solved this apparent difficulty. The Prayer Book expressly allows of the admission by the Rector to the Lord's Supper of "such persons as are confirmed, or are ready and desirous to be confirmed."

Accordingly, on Easter Sunday, the 9th day of April 1871, Dr. Cheney formally called to the Chancel rail nineteen persons who were ready for and desirous of confirmation, and after making them a brief address upon the solemn nature of the step they were taking, admitted them to be members and communicants of Christ Church. By a blunder, or something worse, the Associated Press telegraphed over the land that Dr. Cheney had "confirmed" these persons. It was, however, perfectly understood in Chicago.

A month later, on the 10th of May 1871, a new court ecclesiastical was assembled in the "Cathedral" of Bishop Whitehouse to try the Rector of Christ Church for contumacy in refusing to obey the sentence of suspension. To this neither the Rector nor members of Christ Church paid any attention. It resulted in a sentence of "degradation from the ministry of the Church of God."

Once more, and once more only, did Bp. Whitehouse visit Christ Church. In the summer of 1871 he announced to the Warders of the Church, Mr. E. B. Phillips and Mr. Albert Crane, that learning that there were persons ready and desirous to be confirmed, he proposed to visit the Church for that purpose. After some correspondence he definitely fixed upon Sunday morning, Sept. 10th.

Accordingly, he came to the Vestry room at the appointed time accompanied by the Rev. C. V. Kelley. He found the Wardens in waiting together with the Rector in his surplice. He declined to take the proffered hand of Dr. Cheney "while wearing that garb". He addressed himself to the Wardens, demanding that Dr. Cheney should not be allowed to enter the chancel. Finding them, however, while anxious to have him take full charge of all of the services, inflexibly determined that their Rector should be in the chancel, he withdrew from the Vestry Room without entering the Church.

The writer of this record has no means of verifying the date when the Christ Church difficulties were taken from the sphere of the ecclesiastical to that of the civil courts. It was however probably in the autumn of 1871 or perhaps during the summer of that year, that Allen C. Calkins, H.F. Jennison, and James C. Cleaveland secured to themselves the very unenviable notoriety of becoming plaintiffs in a suit at law before Judge E. S. Williams to recover the property of the Church from the hands of the Vestry. These three gentlemen had, as the owners of pews, contributed to the acquirement of the property. They claimed that the use of the property was being perverted--it being no longer employed as an Episcopal Church--the minister officiating being no longer a clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Thus began a tedious and vexatious litigation which at the date of this writing seems destined to have no end. It, however, was interrupted by an event which for six months completely absorbed the attention of all concerned.

This was the great fire of Oct. 8 & 9th, 1871. At the first glance, it would seem as if Christ Church would be in no way affected by this great municipal calamity--it being more than a mile south of the burned district. But Christ Church was one of the very first to open wide its doors as a place of refuge for the poor wretches who fled from the flames. Its basement became at once a depot of supplies, a free restaurant, a lodging house and a hospital. Hundreds were sheltered here, and thousands were daily fed. During nearly a month it was thus used--and through the whole winter the Rector and his family were engaged--almost to the exclusion of all other work, in the labor of relieving the suffering. The First Presbyterian Church, Rev. Arthur Mitchell, Pastor, were made welcome to the free use of our Church edifice, for some months while they were destitute of a home.

On the first Sunday in the year 1872 nine new communicants were admitted and fourteen more on Easter Sunday, the 31st of March. The balance of the year 1872 was unmarked by any event of great interest to the parochial history. The Rector and his wife were absent in Europe from the first of August to the first of November. Just on the eve of their departure (the 28th of July) an application on the part of Messrs. Calkins, Jennison, and Cleaveland for an immediate injunction prohibiting Dr. Chency from holding services in the church, and the Vestry from employing him as Rector was refused by Judge Williams. This left them only recourse to the attempt to obtain such injunction after argument--a slow and tedious process.

It should be mentioned that the Rev. Chas. H. Tucker of Brooklyn became an Assistant Minister of Christ Church, having exclusive charge of the Mission work, Jan. 1st 1872. The Mission field now comprehended St. George's Chapel (subsequently made a separate parish under the title of Emmanuel Church), The Tyng Mission, and the Chapel of the Good Shepherd. The last named congregation occupied for some time a store on State St. At a later day, Mr. Albert Crane and some other gentlemen raised money and bought the old structure of Christ Church--i.e. the old wooden building which we had originally worshipped in and removed it to Shurtleff Avenue and 35th St., where it was made the Good Shepherd Chapel. In 1873, however, owing to unfortunate circumstances, the enterprise ended. The old building hallowed by the most precious memories long afterward met an untimely fate. In the winter of 1874-75 an attempt was made to remove it to the west side of the river. In the effort it fell into the stream, and went to pieces.

To return from this episode. In 1873 the first Sunday of the new year saw eight persons admitted members of the Church. Twenty-one more were added at Easter. The year was marked by the prosperity of the Church outwardly and inwardly. We were on the eve however of a great revolution for which an education of nearly five years trouble had been preparing us.

In the Autumn of 1873 the Evangelical Alliance met in the City of New York. The assembling was in itself a revival of religion. The spirit it manifested was the spirit of the Master. Bishop Cummins, a former Rector of Trinity Church, Chicago, but for some years past the Ass't Bp. of the Prot. Epis. Church in Kentucky, was one of the delegates appointed to read an important paper. Bp. Cummins had long been grieved with the drift of the Episcopal Church. He had repeatedly dared to show himself a friend both to Christ Church and the Rector in their darkest days, and had thereby brought upon himself the bitter opposition of the High Church party. He had felt ever since the General Convention of 1871 that the only possible hope of reform and revision of the Prayer Book was indefinitely postponed. In a word, he had ceased to hope for relief in the Church he loved. It was at this meeting of the Evangelical Alliance that this feeling reached its culmination. In company with many eminent ministers from all parts of the world, Bp. Cummins took part in a Communion Service.in Dr. John Hall's (Presbyterian) Church, thus testifying to his belief in one Article of the Apostles Creed.

The act was the signal for a storm of abuse to be heaped upon him. Ministers and papers of the Episcopal Church joined in the defamation.

Some even demanded his trial and condemnation. He saved the Episcopal Church any such necessity.

In November 1873 he resigned all connection with the Prot. Episcopal Church, and in his letter to Bp. Smith (the Presiding Bp.) announced his intention of organizing a new Episcopal Church with a revised Book of Common Prayer.

Soon after he issued a call for a meeting for the purpose indicated to be held in New York City. The Rector of Christ Church was invited to be present. On the 2nd of December 1873 the Reformed Episcopal Church was organized and the Rev. Chas. Edwd. Cheney, D.D. was elected a Bishop.

He at once returned

This history was copied from the Parish Register of Christ Church. It was written by Bishop Charles Edward Cheney. There is no record of the completion of the history. (The last service held at Christ R. E. Church was April 18, 1920. Two weeks prior to this date the contract for the sale of the church property was entered into). The original Parish Register is in the possession of the Rector of the Bishop Cheney Memorial Church, 7020 Yale Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

The following is interesting only in that it sheds some light on the activity of Bishop Cummins. It is copied from the "History of the County of Orange; With a History of the Town and City of Newburgh", by E. M. Ruttenbur, published 1875 in Newburgh, New York. Page 295.

THE CHURCH OF THE CORNER-STONE

On the 8th of August, 1875, Bishop Cummins, of the Reformed Protestant Episcopal Church, held services in the Reformed American Church, and on the evening of the 25th "The Church of the Corner-Stone" was organized under the general statute of the State of New York, and the following officers elected: Wardens - Daniel T. Rogers and Walter C. Anthony; Vestrymen - James G. Graham, J. Wilson Stratton, William J. Roe, Jr. George Middleton, Robert L. Case, Jas. G. Birch, Edward Haigh. Benjamin F. Clark, Secretary and Treasurer; James G. Birch, Superintendent of Sabbath-school. Regular services were subsequently held in the lecture room of the Associate Reformed Church. Rev. Dr. Leacock was called to the Rectorship in October, and entered at once upon the discharge of its duties. In November ground was broken for the erection of the Church ediface on South Street; and on the 24th of that month the contract for building was given to Thomas Dobin at $4,969. The structure is of Gothic style and has a frontage of thirty-three feet. Seating accommodations are provided for about two hundred and fifty persons. It was first occupied on Easter Sunday (April 16), 1876.

State of Maine

York S.S. Probate Court

Alfred, Maine

To the court of Probate for the county of York. Respectfully represents Eliphalet Hoyt of Readfield in the county of Kennebec, that Thomas Adams late of Limerick in said county of York, died on or about the tenth day of June A.D. 1837, seized and possessed of real estate, goods and chattels rights and credits, to the value twelve hundred dollars, which ought to be administered according to law. Your petitioner further represents that the widow and the next of kin both decline taking letters of administration on said estate. Wherefore he prays that administration of said estate may be granted to him. Dated this second day of July 1838. E. Hoyt

At a court of Probate held at Kennebunk (Kennebec), within and for the county of York, on the sixth day of August A.D. 1838. Upon the foregoing petition, notice thereof having been given pursuant to the order of said court, and the facts therein stated being fully proned and considered, I do there upon order and decree that administration of said estate be granted to the said Eliphalet Hoyt, and a part of said estate lying without the county of York, that William Taylor Esquire, Benjamin Melvin and Wyer Fifield, all of Readfield in said county of Kennebec be a committee to appraise, upon oath, all the estate of which the said deceased died seized and possessed in said counties of York and Kennebec.

Wm. A. Hayes, Judge

To the Judge of Probate for the county of York
Betsey Adams widow of Thomas Adams late of Limerick in said county, deceased, respectfully represents that said Adams died possessed of personal estate, and inventory whereof has been returned into the Probate office; that her circumstances render it necessary that she should have an allowance out of said personal estate; wherefore she prays your honor to make her such an allowance as in your discretion you may judge necessary and proper.

Betsey Adams
by her attorney
N. D. Appleton

At a court of Probate held at Alfred within and for the court of York, on the seventh day of January A.D. 1859. Upon the foregoing petition, notice thereof having been giving to all persons interested ordered, that the said petitioner be, and she hereby is, allowed the sum of seventy eight dollars and fifty seven cents; out of the personal estate of said deceased, and that the same may be received by her in such articles as she may choose to that amount, according to the appraisment thereof in the inventory, and charged in the account of administration of said estate.

Tradition concerning Nelson family from coat of arms of ancient Nelson family of Yorkshire, who were ancestors of Lord Nelson.

Nelsons, same descent as Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, thru 73 generations in 20 centuries, showing kinship with some Virginia families.

Col. George Reade b. in England Oct. 25, 1608
Came to America 1637
Acting governor of Virginia 1638
Member House of Burgesses for James Co. 1644
" " " " " York Co. 1656
" of Kings Council 1657 - 1671

Oldest tradition in regard to Hite family is that in the days of Wm. of Orange, there came from Holland to Germany, from Germany to England a family called Van der Heydt (German spelling Von der Heydt) name signifying "Lord of the Heights". Called by this name until days of Wm. Penn, when some became Quakers, coming to America. Owing to their opposition to anything that looked like a title, the first part of the name was dropped and they were known by the simple name of Height of Hite. This was when Holland was ruled by Phillip of Spain. There is a Hite book about the family called "Long Meadows".
